

Understanding the Instagram Algorithm

Instagram counters in three main factors within it's algorithm and how content is served in it's feed.

Relevancy

How relevant is the image or video to the person viewing it?

Timeliness

Although Instagram isn't chronological anymore, content is still timely to extent. Also consider how long someone will spend on your post.

Interest

Has this person interacted with this account before? Have they liked similar content before?